

The Chair of International Economics at Julius-Maximilians University of Würzburg (Prof. Dr. Michael Pflüger) is inviting applications for a

Doctoral Position in Urban and Regional Economics

The position is initially fixed for a term of 3 years, payscale E13 TV-Länder, 75 %.

Your tasks

- collaboration in the research project “Cities and Regions – Flashpoints for Real Income and Welfare Inequality” founded by the German Research Foundation (DFG) with the aim to present your results at international conferences and publish your work in international journals
- collaboration in the teaching activities and the organization of the Chair

We offer

- Integration in an active, internationally oriented team
- Intensive academic support and an international research environment
- Opportunity to obtain a doctoral degree (Ph.D.) and participation in the Bavarian Graduate Program of Economics (BGPE)

The following qualifications are required:

- Excellent Master's Degree in Economics or a related field
- Strong interest in Urban and Regional Economics
- Strong background in microeconomics and empirical and quantitative methods
- Strong software skills (e.g. R, Stata, Mathematica)
- Excellent communication in English
- Willingness to contribute as a team member to the activities of the Chair and department

For further information please consult Prof. Dr. Michael Pflüger (michael.pflueger@uni-wuerzburg.de).

The University of Würzburg is an equal opportunity employer. As such, we explicitly encourage applications from qualified women. Severely handicapped applicants will be given preferential consideration in the case of broadly equal suitability, ability and professional achievements. Please note that we are unable to cover your costs for the interviews.

Applications including cover letter, CV, and names of references should be sent as one PDF at the earliest opportunity to Michael Pflüger (michael.pflueger@uni-wuerzburg.de).

Deadline for applications is October 1, 2024.

